PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Apply the orange blossom cannabinoid (CBD) topical cream externally to the skin to provide relief from aches and pains, dry skin, or areas that need some tender loving care (TLC). The full spectrum topical cream comes in a 2oz glass jar with an easy to remove lid. Each jar contains 500mg of hemp CBD oil with the blood orange essential oil for a refreshing orange blossom scent.

Research has shown the all-natural ingredients are known to offer the following benefits:

- CBD Oil – has been shown to have anti-inflammatory and pain reducing properties.
- Aloe Vera – is a soothing, anti-inflammatory, and antibacterial gel that helps improve the appearance of wrinkles, and hydrates damaged skin.
- Cocoa Butter – improves blood flow to the skin and slows skin aging by protecting it against sun damaged skin.
- Coconut Oil – is readily absorbed into the skin to help reduce the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles; improves dry and damaged skin and speeds up the healing process.
- Olive Oil – it relieves itching and helps with aches and pain when massaged into sore muscles and joints.
- Chamomile - is an anti-inflammatory and improves skin regeneration.
- Vitamin E – is an antioxidant and helps moisturize the skin.
